I'm walking in this life
Running in disguise
The more i try, the less i do.
We walked until the deadlines
And things will never change
I need my love, my soul, my friends. Nothing more.
They bring me light upon my face
They are some pictures in my head
Just need my love my idle fancy
Who's running for better days?
They bring me light upon my face
They are some pictures in my head
Just need my love my idle fancy
Who's running for better days?
Running for better bays.
With your sadness, you let me down baby, now you're gone your own way
With your ghosts running on your back, you try to fly away
But you're still waiting and i'm just singin'
She brought me light upon my face
Now she's a picture in my head
Just need my love my idle fancy.
She brought me light upon my face
Now she's a picture in my head
Just need my love my idle fancy
Who's running for better days?
Running for better days
Running for better days
Running for better days
They bring me light upon my face
They are some pictures in my head
Just need my love my idle fancy
Who's running for better days?
They bring me light upon my face
They are some pictures in my head
Just need my love my idle fancy
Who's running for better days?
