Less Than Zero
(P.Welch C.Wing)

In my life I feel this damnation
And in these footsteps I've followed
I've been misled

Underneath, overfilled, with frustrations
And in these footsteps I've followed
Have left me, hindered

Feeling less than alive
You feel it's less than zero
And I can sympathize

And all my sympathy it is for you
You feel it's less than zero
But you can change

In your soul you feel this isolation has brought you
Cut you down and left you for dead

Underneath, overfilled, these frustrations have caught you
Kept you down and left you
Hindered

Feeling less than alive
You feel it's less than zero
And I can sympathize

And all my sympathy it is for you
You feel it's less than zero
But you can change

You cant see the light ... I know
You cant see this light ... I hold
Yes .. I know...
That you can change

In your life you feel this damnation
And in these footsteps you've followed

You've been misled

And all my sympathy it is for you
You feel it's less than zero

But you can change ..
You can change..
I know..
That you can change....
