Sometimes, I feel bitter
Feeling boxed, all alone
Someday's I can't feel I know
Today it seems all I know

I'll look on blue sky's again
There's nothing left I know
To keep from falling down

Someday's I can't be free I know
Today it seem's their never ..

Never better someday's
Someday's are better than other's I know
Never better someday's
When I feel your sun through my rain

Someday's
Are better than
Others

Sometime's, I feel better
Feeling washed of all I know,
Someday's can't receive at all
Today I feel I need to grow

Look on your smile today
There's nothing less I know to keep me from feeling down

Someday's I can't believe I know
Today it seem's your better ...

Never better someday's
Someday's are better than other's I know
Never better someday's
When I feel your sun through my rain

Feel your pain it's straining you collared you
It's dragging you down, down, down
Not letting you grow ...

Wash away, the thing's that bind you
Carry it away, It's alright
Wash away, the thing's that bind you
Carry it away, It's alright

Never better someday's
Someday's are better than other's I know
Never better someday's
When I feel your sun and seasons you've changed

Someday's
Are Better than
Are better than
Are better than
Others
