I pry
One day
Give me love when I come home

I dreamt
You went
At may under a tray

Cause when I think of you
There's nothing I can do
I just can't stop it

I pry
One day
We'll leave and I'll go home

I dreamt
We went
And left on the first train

Every seed's a flower
And every second's an hour
My friend says believe her
The grass is never greener

Don't you love?
Standing on the head
Lights falling in the snow
Falling out

Every seed's a flower
And every second's an hour
Every single day
I feel you drift away

Understand that I've been gone
Sitting under water, hiding from the sun
I were, well I've been gone
Underneath the water, hiding from the sun
Hiding out
