Forgot you're mine
Forgot every line
Gone are the days
I've lost you

It's our last conversation
Our last conversation

Always I trust
All the past and lies
Falling away
Disappear

It's our last conversation
There's a new age in the making
A new age in the making

I fell deeper down
And I found no way out
Without you there's a hurt for me
There's a hurt for me

It's our last conversation
There's a new age in the making
It's our last conversation
There's a different train I'm taking
A different train I'm taking

I fell deeper down
And I found no way out
Without you there's a hurt for me

And I fell deeper down
And I found no way out
Without you there's a hurt for me
There's a hurt for me
