Amelia's Last

words and music: Detweiler recording: The Darkest Night of the Year

these are the (whose are the?)

these are the raw materials

you and me

these are the angels' inferiors

who

someone breathed this breath in us

"oh amelia, we've so far to go oh amelia"

these are the ordinary clothes

around extraordinary flesh and pulsing madness deep and close

"oh amelia maybe we're not that far oh amelia is this who we really are my amelia"
