Anyway
words and music: Bergquist recording: Amateur Shortwave Radio

it's enough for now besides I feel so awkward
and there is no doubt
I could sleep for hours
anyway
(i'll never leave you now)

any recourse now
well it's much too late
and our hate
like toys
should be put away
anyway
(i'll never leave you now)

no wonder this confusion you've suffered all my delusions

we can right the end
we can close this chapter
we can start again
no matter what comes after
anyway
(i'll never leave you now)
