Little Blue River/In The Garden words and music: Karin Bergquist/In The Garden: C. Austin Miles recording: Films For Radio roll me over the little blue river church child

now church child

silence and dumb tongues it's a different kind of ghetto carry the weight (it's heavy)
of a disreputed fellow

church child

every step that you've been taking is straying a little further south as for me I am so tired of living (babe) so hand-to-mouth

church child

hey you wanna steady that cue card make it a billboard today everybody's saying they want their money back ah well baby just roll me away out of the mouth of them babies how they can talk best be saving your pennies put 'em back for a very long walk

roll me
