as the salt on your skin heals the wounds
rub it in, rub it in
'til I see tumbleweeds
blowing through my head like toledo, ohio are we blessed are we cursed are we messed-up or worse either or neither nor we're tumbleweeds
what are we mumbling for?
what are we tumbling toward?

take me - one way or another are we dead or alive drivin' I-75

hard to say either way tumbleweeds blowing through my head like toledo, ohio
pretty eyes pretty lips pretty thighs pretty hips pretty hip - we will feed tumbleweeds what are we waiting for?

when you have no destination in your head any road will take you there I don't care where (it's not about arriving) does it even matter one way or another rust is just a slow form of fire in my tail lights
