Waking up its kind of early its going to be a sunny day but i can't miss another morning so i'll be on my way and yes i'll take your cup of coffee add your sugar, add your cream but first im having you for breakfast i lick my plate clean and i know, that you know its what i know, that you know but it'll have to wait

i'll have more things to say but now I'm on my way
and i'll start right here

you can take me to the movies we'll find a spot way in the back and maybe this time i might let you hold my hand and later well go back to your place we'll play some music and we'll drink some tea and lay all night right here together yes i love to watch you sleep

but it'll have to wait
