Every time the lights glare, all around it seems so fake I wanna keep our love safe, from the jackals and the snakes
I had you on the front porch, you know you had me too
I want you every night now, ooh

I love it when you're lookin' at me like I'm your only man
I know you think it's something to see baby, you know I understand

I wanna make your love feel expensive
I love it when the cheap feels expensive too
I wanna make our love feel expensive
When I'm with you
I wanna feel your love this expensive
Does expensive love make it all more true?
I wanna make our love feel expensive
You're my room with a view
Expensive love

This summer seems so reckless, with you I never care
When I see you in the morning, you complain about your hair
I can't buy you diamonds, but I swear my words are true
Tell me what your heart costs, ooh

I can tell when you're too gone to see "You know I understand"
I love it when you're lookin' at me like I'm your man

I wanna make your love feel expensive
I love it when the cheap feels expensive too
I wanna make our love feel expensive
When I'm with you
I wanna feel your love this expensive
Does expensive love make you all more true?
I wanna make our love feel expensive
You're my room with a view

I wanna make our love feel expensive
I wanna make your dreams come true

Expensive love is expensive
When I'm with you
I wanna feel your love this expensive
I love it when the cheap feels expensive too
I wanna make our love feel expensive
You're my room with a view
Expensive love
