This anchor won't let me reach the surface.
Pulling me further into the abyss.
Can you save a weakened soul?
Can you tell me?
Tell a wretch like me to finally see.
Can you tell me how lonely I have been?
And I want to believe,
Oh I just want to believe.
I don't want to wait.
Tell me.
I'm my own worst enemy, the knife in my own back.
My mind is a tragedy, it's killing me.
But I have never seen this so clear.
No I have never seen this so clear.
I am terrorized, cut off from your sight.
Is there anyone that can save me?
Cut off from your sight in this hostile world.
I'm cut off from your sight in this hostile world.
There's a hole in my heart.
I have found a way to feel alive.
Will you help me to escape this abyss below?
I'm my own worst enemy, the knife in my own back.
My mind is a tragedy, it's killing me.
But I have never seen this so clear.
The enemy stands in the mirror.
I know You are the only one.
I know You are the only one to save me from myself.
