Withering from the seam.
I'm hanging by a thread, I fear I've done something wrong.
Fearing there's no turning back, I must be the accomplice.
Questions fill my mind.
Forgive us.
Forgive me.
Paranoid everyone knows what I have locked behind these doors.
My heart is sinking.
The world is closing in on me.
They watch me choke on lies.
Running scared I feel sick again.
Everyone, all we've done, come clean.
I am the liar. I am the cheat.
I am the secret you want to keep.
I am so ashamed, and I can't escape this.
It's eating me alive, and I can't escape these secrets are my prison.
They watch me choke on lies.
Running scared I feel sick again.
Everyone, all we've done, come clean.
