At all happened at my place one day

As I was wakin up she crossed my way
I gave her smile, she looked me in the eyes and she said " Hey"

So I got outta bed , to make some breakfast, but then I heard her say, " It might sound funny , but Im not sure what day is today " I started laughin I was tryin to explain then she said
" tell me what happened yesterday ?"

I stayed down and you went just to high to grab my love
All we had was just a perfect time , And you were mine.
Then she asked me if she was bad , and I said No girl it aint like that !

We had a good time , few glasses of wine , no need to care at all.
As we were talkin I kinda noticed ,
Somethin was crawlin down my veins. That cure lil thing
, she was entering my brains.

The baby skin , her body looks so fine, The pretty face (oh god) makes worthy every crime , (now wait a minute)
It crossed my mind, " she's under age ", I thought I might get in a cage I better flip that page . Flip it a back YO !
(Roll it back , roll it back) I gotta flip it back YO! C
'mon.... Maybe I was wrong ,
I told her one more time before I bring her home.

All we had was just a perfect time . (x3) You were mine....
