With shaky knees and my old nervous grin
We stood before the Lord and all our friends
And your Daddy cried a teardrop as he gave his girl away
And I promised to keep lovin' you until my dying day

CHORUS: What God has joined together
Let no one come between
Or try to put asunder
Lovers building their dreams
The light that shines forever
Is now burning in our hearts
What God has joined together
Let no one ever part

Well that was several year ago today
And we walked the rocky roads along the way
But the lord has helped us make through
This crazy ups and downs
And when we took the wrong road
He turned us both around

(REPEAT CHORUS)

When the evening of our lives on earth is near
And our eyes grow weak and words are hard to hear
Well I pray the Lord is tender
When he comes to call us home
And he lets us go together
So we'll never be alone
