When I come around, You feel guilty
From all the thoughts that cross your mind
You laid eyes on me, I think you are filthy
And I am not that blind

I've never seen you in the starlight
I've never seen your beauty shine
Now I want to, want to make it right
You turned my head and you'll be mine

My heart is on fire
Now I want you all night long
Today is, not the same as yesterday

Today, let's get away
I want you all night long, (I want be your new star)
I want you all night long,

Today, let's run away
I want you all night long, (I want be your new star)
I want you all night long,

When I come around, You're never on your own
How does it feel being close to you
I think it's suicide, it's a danger zone
But I like it that way too

My head shot if I ask you out tonight,
My head shot should I speak your name,
Can't help it, I'll go out and have the fight,
And the walk of fame,

My heart is on fire
Now I want you all night long
Today is, not the same as
yesterday

Today, let's get away
I want you all night long, (I want be your new star)
I want you all night long, (I want be your new star)
I want you all night long,

It's on the water, on the line
I want to go under where it shines
I want to hold my breath and sink
This time I make it for real
I wanna make it real
You wanna make a deal
I wanna scream it's real
You want to drown away
