Your heart is burning so deep inside
You traveled miles to see her tonight
It's not obvious that she likes you But you have mind "She could like me too"

You turn around and get on the floor
To check her out cuz you want some more
To take her out cuz you want her tonight...

You turn around and get on the floor
To check her out cuz you want some more
To take her out cuz you want her
tonight...

You gotta feeling that she kinda likes to hide, hide, hide
cuz she's not looking when you're right next to her side, side, side
and you try,

You like her so, You want to kiss her She's all you want

and you try

You want her, You love her
You want her, You love her
You want her, You love her
You want her now

And in the shadows of the moon you'd give it a try to make her swoon You come on closer, would she give herself to you? but you dont know, if she's gonna do...

You turn around and get on the floor
To check her out cuz you want some more
To take her out cuz you want her
tonight...

You turn around and get on the floor

To check her out cuz you want some more
To take her out cuz you want her
tonight...

You gotta feeling that she kinda likes to hide, hide,
cuz she's not looking when you're right next to her
side, side, side
and you try,

You like her so, You want to kiss her She's all you want

and you try

You want her, You love her
You want her, You love her
You want her, You love her
You want her now
You want her now
You want her now
You want her now
