Always, always
We can do this all day
Always, always
We can party all day

We about to get loud tonight
Tell everyone to come inside
But keep the doors open
Cause the party is exploding
The neighbors yell and scream
But we going to party until we fall asleep
But if I see red and blue I'm slipping out the back room

Even if they try we won't stop
Still you'll hear that beat when it drops

Always, always
We can do this all day

I said even if they try to make us go we won't stop
Still you'll hear that beat when it drops

Always, always
We can do this all day

If we get too loud, sorry
No one wants a quiet party
If you try to kick us out
We'll sneak back in a different route
You don't want to start a fight
We just want a good time
C'mon bro, let it go
We'll be out of here before you know

Always, always
We can do this all day
Always, always
We can party all day

If they try to make us go
We'll take this to my house for sure
If they try to make us stop

Still you'll hear the beat drop

Always, always
We can do this all day

Always
