Spread the word I've got
The meaning of this life
Haven't you heard?
It makes a fool
Right out of you

I took the long illuminated
Walk across the light and Dark side of your heart
And that's all that I can do

And I sing
Oh follow me home
You've got the highest hopes
That I have ever known
And rightfully so
And as we're spinning around
You let your feet leave the ground,

Losing your mind
For the first time
Knowing it won't be your last
Taking a fall
You won't remember at all
Electric daydream
Look what you've done

Spread the word I've got
The meaning of this life
Haven't you heard?
It makes a fool
Right out of me

I saw the long illuminated
View across the light and Dark side of the moon
And that's all I can do

And I sing
Oh follow me home
You've got the highest hopes
That I have ever known

And rightfully so

And as we're spinning around
You let your feet leave the ground,

Losing your mind
For the first time
Knowing it won't be your last
Taking a fall
You won't remember at all
Electric daydream
Look what you've done
[x2]

Losing your mind
For the first time
Taking a fall
You won't remember at all
Electric daydream
Electric daydream
Electric daydream
