I run and hide where I cannot be
I love or die deep inside of me
I seek and find everything I'll never need

I'm reaching out for what I wanna feel
I change the times that were never real
It's me and I that I try so hard to heal

And you don't know my way
And you don't know my faith
And you don't know what makes me
What I really am
And you don't know my way
And you don't know my faith
You deny all that makes me a man

Hey , I try to realize
What I might be without your stare
Hey , I try to visualize
The load of feelings I can't bare
Hey , I try to realize
That everything will never be
Hey , I try to visualize
The way I'll melt inside of me

Was you and I in a painfull lie
Was you and I in an endless cry
Our lives were tied
But our souls were meant to die

We dre the line we will never cross
In the name of things that we lovev the most
We stepped on it and we had to pay the cost
And you don't know my way
And you don't know my faith
And you don't know what makes me
What I really am
And you don't know my way
And you don't know my faith
You deny all that makes me a man

Hey , I try to realize

What I might be without your stare
Hey , I try to visualize
The load of feelings I can't bare
Hey , I try to realize
That everything will never be
Hey , I try to visualize
The way I'll melt inside of me

And you don't know my way
And you don't know my faith
You deny all that makes me a man

Hey , I try to realize
What I might be without your stare
Hey , I try to visualize
The load of feelings I can't bare
Hey , I try to realize
That everything will never be
Hey , I try to visualize
The way I'll melt inside of me
