No hidden agendas
Written by walter mccarty

She says she's ready for love, but could never find the right one,
Tells me she's seen my type before, she says to me Things go so smooth at first, begins to get serious then gets worse
She says she can't take being hurt anymore

Don't wanna be like those other guys,
Don't wanna use the same ole lines
Don't wanna hurt you or make you cry
Cause you deserve more

I got no hidden agendas
I just wanna love you love you girl
I got no hidden agendas
I just wanna have you in my world
I got no hidden agendas

She says she's willing to try, but needs a man who'll treat her right
She says she's tired of lonely nights
So I say to her, if I was the man in your life, only god knows I'll treat you nice, she says she's heard that line a million times
Baby I don't

Don't wanna be like those other guys,
Don't wanna use the same ole lines
Don't wanna hurt you or make you cry
Cause you deserve more

All I do is think of you, gotta believe that what I say is true
All I do is think of you, can't even think of ever hurting you
