I don't know what you're lookin' for
But I do know that you won't find it at the rainbow
So you might as well stay home

I don't care what you're looking for
But I do know that you don't like drinkin' alone
And you're too smart to act so dumb
And these eyes will wear thin Wear your disguise again and again

I've seen that look enough times to know What you're in the mood for But these here can't be bad anymore tonight
You poor thing, already used to sleepin' alone
And you're too dumb to see, those wet shoes are no use to you

I don't know what you're lookin' for
But I do know that you ain't no God damn son of a bitch
You're just more unlikable than you used to be

You're along ways away from the place we thought
you'd be by now
You're along ways away from the place we thought
you'd be by now
You're along ways away from the place we thought
you'd be by now
You're along ways away from the place we thought
you'd be by now
