What i've seen what i've known i known exactly who i am

What you seek what you give i'll take it even if it's the worst

They hear what they fear unknown beliefs inside their heads

And white noise is falling like dust that hides what is clean

Permission,admission the words most known in the end

So go on don't stand freeze what is red awaits to be fought

...What i've seen what i've known in the end i lead to wonder..
...What you seek what you give
i'll take it even if it's the worst..

Build houses collapse towers you win don't you think Rough skin cold mind wear cotton coats to warm your soul

Depression is over take your legs and stand up the fight

You rise or you fall all that matters now is the try

...What i've seen what i've known in front of you i'm nothing..
...What you seek what you give
