The night will come back for more.
I hide. Leave me alone or sit next to me,
The one that gave me wings
Just to rip them up again.
Charcoal and chalk... Muted sounds of thunder.

I've done it all to ease the pain again,
The pain I dreamt up. Cigaretts in bed...
I draw but noone can see how she could.
I've been sleeping for too long.
Charcoal and chalk
I draw but noone can see how she could.
I've been dreaming for too long

I'm sorry that I didn't ask her,
I was so afraid she could ask me back.
It's a beautiful night, endless night.
I close my eyes...

Charcoal and chalk... Cigaretts in bed.
I draw but noone can see how she could
I dreamt up it all.
Erase.
