The city is big hostile and so cold
When morning frost creeps under your cloth.

It creeps slowly, It wont stop.
Making you think and see clear.
Making you feel so got damn alone.
I'm coming home. Now I see clear.

Hi I'm not your silly boy, Hi I'm not your funny toy
Anymore. I've read you well - I dont care
Anymore. I've read you well
I wasted time In this place

The fake canvas I've never really liked.
The truth is too vile but it's better than those lies.
You did this... No I don't feel anything

Hi I'm not your silly boy, Hi I'm not your funny toy
Anymore. I've read you well - I dont care
Anymore. I've read you well
I wasted time In this place
And all the gentle words I've said I take them back.
I wasted time In this place

Finding things that she left
Waking up alone cold room full of her fume
I'm tearing up the web you've spun - yes I'm fine.

Make years disappear your voice disappear
Make years disappear your fume disappear

Hi I'm not your silly boy, Hi I'm not your fucking toy
Anymore. I've read you well - I dont care
Anymore. I've read you well
I wasted time In this place
And all the gentle words I've said I take them back.
I wasted youth In this place.
