I would believe in every word but now your eyes are telling something more,
I would be happy as you do
So please hold on, I'm not right here to surrender.

I know that I'm a bore
So lost and insecure
but trust me you're not perfect dear,
You're acting like you're gone
You're here but I'm alone
Just hold me tight right by your side.

As long as you will be my goal
I'm not gonna lose this fucking game,
As long as you will be my cure,
So please hold on, I'm not right here to surrender.

I know that I'm a bore
So lost and insecure
but trust me you're not perfect dear,
You're acting like you're gone
You're here but I'm alone
Just hold me tight right by your side.

YOUR SIDE!

I know that I'm a bore
So lost and insecure
but trust me you're not perfect dear,
You're acting like you're gone
You're here but I'm alone
Just hold me tight right by your side.
