"Be With You"

i wanna show you the rythm and the roll and take it into the center of my soul i wanna run through the fields of your imagination under the blue skies you're the golden sun i look in your eyes and know you are the one see where my heart lies trippin on the fascination along the way i will hang on every single word you say and should you whisper asking me to stay maybe i'll lay a while to kiss your smile
i wanna know how it feels to believe in something ride on the heels of a good thing coming run to the one thing i know is something true i wanna be with you (yeah) want you to show me the wonders of the world

feel like you know me like no other girl you have and hold me leading me out of the darkest night into the light never has it ever felt so right and from this moment on you are the sight i can't erase i close my eyes to see your face
i wanna know how it feels to believe in something
run to the one thing i know is something true i wanna live my life like i hold the meaning deep inside my soul i hear the music screaming eyes wide open i'm awake and dreaming too i wanna be with you i wanna show you the rhythm and the roll and take ya into the center of my soul
i wanna run through the fields of your imagination
run to the one thing i know is something true
