Tonight

We're gonna meet in the city lights
Never knowing endings but riding the fire
Our last chance
To take the city tonight
So stepping out not stepping in
And turn the page and lets begin

Don't you, wish too, move a little faster
Life is short so write a brand new chapter
I can't stop
Thinking of you (no no no)
I can't stop
Thinking of you (hahahaa)

Woo oo
Feels like I'm losing control
Woo oo
This is where we lose control

Tonight's
The night
We'll make it right
Lets paint this town and chase the lights
Tonight, tonight, lets make tonight
We're gonna make it right
So lets make out tonight!

So tonight
We're gonna meet in the city lights
Never knowing endings but riding the fire
It's you and me
Living in this new century
(living in this new century!)

So
They'll say
They wont have it anyway
They'll leave behind
The story's
That made them lose our way
I cant stop thinking of you

I cant stop thinking of you

Chorus Repeat

And if we ever fall
We'll be caught in the middle Caught in the middle
Theres no time to waste
I wont let you slip away (let you slip away)
Cus I cant breath
No rest for me
Till we fight our final fight
Over a silly thing that they call life

Chorus x 2
