So what can I say
You never take the time
To make up your mind
All this pushing and fighting is never gonna fade
Away from you

So don't push me away from who I am
Don't push me away from who I am
You think you're something but you really ain't nothing to me (Ain't
Nothing to me)
You think you're something but you're nothing

You always said that I'd never come last
But the way that you made me wasn't the best
This situation is out of control

From first to last I'm still screaming
Your lies are cold

Your lies are cold

So dark, so bleak, so rotten you are.
So dark. So Bleak.

Don't run back to me cause I don't want your problems
You'll never be half of who I am
We'll never be the same again

You always said that I'd never come last
But the way that you made me wasn't the best
This situation is out of control

Go. Don't ever come back to me
Don't ever come back to me
Don't ever come back
