"Radiator Blues"

You've got those far away eyes baby, far away eyes
And I've got these radiator blues baby, what am I to do?

Oh but let's not talk about much tonight
Just move to the silence in the lone star light
Hold me by the hands and bring your body closer
I want the heat, I want the roller coaster

Please put your body in my bed and your pretty little head

Whisper me things you'd never dare, I can take you there

Oh, I've been waiting too long for this
The touch of your fingers and your sweet sweet kiss
Hold me in your gaze until my mind is weak
You are the medicine that I seek

Where have you been baby Off to the far side sitting on a beach in some Far away land that never ends

When you coming back baby
I got the radiator blues but I won't Ever leave you cold

You've got those far away eyes baby, far away eyes
And I've got these radiator blues baby, what am I to
do?

Oh but let's not talk about much tonight
Just move to the silence in the lone star light
Hold me by the hands and bring your body closer
I want the heat, I want the roller coaster
