The time is 3am

don't say "What's hap happening?"
You're t t t telling lies
Looks like you're stuttering

It's 3 A.M. and I ain't heard a word
Gone again this ain't what I deserve
Baby I'm first of all fed up
It's crazy I'm wonderin' if you give a f*** or d***
I tell myself I should turn up the heat
And watch you melt I saw that game you
You can't play me like you've done before
Baby rest buttured Im not about to take no more

If you think that you're talking your way out of this
Well, it's just not happening
I'm so-so sick and tired of all your st-st-st-stuttering
And I'm not listening

Chorus:

Don't say you're s-s-sorry
Don't say you a-p-p-pologize
No way, I've heard your story
You know you can't disguise
You're just telling lies don't say you're g-g-gonna change
Knowing your p-playing games
Truly, I can see what's happening
Y-you're telling lies, y-you're stuttering

T-t-today junior, come on Picture this, Im erasing you off my list
And then replacing you quickly
See you in the past
don't trick me
Baby, you can kiss my a-a-a
Asked me once to claim a place
Forming "whys"
Is that you're final play
Forget me, you'll be out the door

Baby, rest buttured I'm not about to take no more

If you think that you're smoothing it over with words
Well, it's just not happening
Well, I just can't believe you with all that I've heard Stuttering and Im not listening

Repeat Chorus

don't, yeah, don't say, don't say there's no way, there's no way What do you say

Repeat Chorus

Your lies are all over
I have to wonder
It's just a little
Then why do you stutter

Repeat Chorus
