"Razor Blade"

This time he's gambling at his very height
As he's to move and pull the strings of fate
He's aware of what his blunders cause
He's turned it over in his mind for hours

Chorus

That's like...
A Dance on a razor blade

It makes no odds since now the chance is real
Restrains are hard but wounds will never heal
Can lose a lot but there's as much to gain
It's kind of dancing on a razor's blade
He's stepping on the edge of a chance he never had
