Blue is the queue that you're in today
It'll never gets you anywhere, you know
You're chewing a clue like a cold cliché
Tripping up everywhere you go
Gonna go fast when we go to bed,
We'll rack up the snow, don't you know
And your Ferrari is so chrome red
It screams out money to throw

I took a bit of love from a hard knock life,
And manifested something new
I needed to
Do it myself

[Chorus]
I used to slither like a salamander
But now I've got bones in my body to get there
I was living in like a panda
With big black eyes and a bucket of tears

Iâ€™m like a salamander,
Manda [x7]

I'm like a salamander,
Manda [x6]

What is the point if you worry away?
Who's gonna tell you not to do so yo?
Do you believe everything people say?
You're sippin' on your frappuccinio-oh-oh

I look like I've see a ghost today,
'Cause I'm easy come, easy go
Shows what I know in my naiveté
Which covers me head to toe

I took a bit of love from a hard knock life
And manifested something new
I needed to
Do it myself

[Chorus]
I used to slither like a salamander
But now I've got bones in my body to get there
I was living in like a panda
With big black eyes and a bucket of tears

I'm like a salamander,
Manda [x6]

No way, No way
I won't slither like a salamander no more
No way, no way!
I'm not living in like a panda

So if you slither like a salamander
And now you have the bones in your body to get there
Living in like a panda
With big black eyes and a bucket of tears

[Chorus]
I used to slither like a salamander
But now I've got bones in my body to get there
I was living in like a panda
With big black eyes and a bucket of tears

I'm like a salamander,
Manda [x9]

I was living like a sala-woooo
Oooh,
Pa pa pa pa da [x4]
Like a salamander.
