what is needed (you)
is distant and engaged what is wanted (you)
is tripping out of age
the need to have i had
knows no other way
when i reads this you're in coma state since days
in and out
things we used to do things we used to share
in and out
this warm solitude is a reminder of those days the need to have i had has grown

lays flashy on it's side what is wanted ?
you're a golden death , my bride
is tasting love through hate
what is wanted?
you're in a coma state since days

i full-circle seeing through we're to near the flame to spot the light
