Ozark Henry
"Rain Of The Golden Gorilla"

I see you everyday
But I tear my eyes away
Cause if you can't be mine
I don't want to waste my time
I don't want to waste my time

I see you everyday
But I tear my eyes away
Cause if you can't be mine
I don't want to waste my time
I don't want to waste my time

I see you now and then
But I look away again
Cause if you're not the one im for
I don't want to suffer anymore
I don't want to suffer anymore

I see you now and then
But I look away again
Cause if you're not the one im for
I don't want to suffer anymore
I don't want to suffer anymore
I don't want to suffer anymore
I don't want to suffer anymore

I know the end is near
But it has been since the start
But that still doesn't mean
That I could keep you from my heart
That I could keep you from my heart

I know the end is near
But it has been since the start
But that still doesn't mean
That I could keep you from my heart
That I could keep you from my heart
I couldn't keep you from my heart
I couldn't keep you from my heart

I see you everyday

But I tear my eyes away
Cause if you can't be mine
I don't want to waste my time
I don't want to waste my time

I see you everyday
But I tear my eyes away
Cause if you can't be mine
I don't want to waste my time
I don't want to waste my time

The sound flowing through these cables is the blood in my veins
