I have tried to change my mind
Refuse to face the truth
Thereâ€™s no escaping all those times
Canâ€™t stop these memories of you

Donâ€™t you need me here to share your life?
Find your love for me again please try
Canâ€™t you feel my body close to yours at night?

Bring your heart home to me
Bring your heart home to me
Bring your heart home
Oh yeah

Distant eyes, absent smiles
And a cold embrace now and then
The change has come
Now Iâ€™m undone
And I feel Iâ€™ve lost a friend

Canâ€™t we find a way to compromise?
Leave the world behind weâ€™ve only time
Make a wish
Shoot for the stars

Bring your heart home to me
Bring your heart home to me
Bring your heart home

Two hearts that pass in the night
Two wrongs that donâ€™t make this right

Make a wish
Shoot for the stars

Bring your heart home to me
Bring your heart home to me
Bring your heart home
