Visit "Dream House" on MotoLyrics.com

There is some hope
Though you've been down a long time
The lock is on the door
But you have the key so don't hide

Now your chance is open
You can fly now if you want
Nothing can hold you again to the floor

Say say say say
So come right out and say it
There's no use to delay it
You've got to change the scene

Hey hey hey hey
Maybe if you leave now
You can build your dream house
And fill it as you please

You watch the world
Looking for good advice
You think you're all alone
You'll see, they'll come and stand by your side

Yes your chance is open
Yeah that jail was in your head
Go make your dream house now instead

Say say say say
So come right out and say it
There's no use to delay it
You've got to change the scene

Hey hey hey hey
Maybe if you leave now
You can build your dream house
And fill it as you please

Say say say say
So come right out and say it
There's no use to delay it
You've got to change the scene

Hey hey hey hey
Maybe if you leave now
You can build your dream house
And fill it as you please
