Here we are And I can't think of a single thing I did this year
What do I say when I write this down?
I've done my best, I swear I have, I just can't get a hold on this
I can't keep blaming it all on this town

Almost 24 and I'm fine
Another year of just the same
Almost 24 and I'm fine
Another year and I'll do it over again

The good was good the bad was worse every story has two sides
I'm trying not to make it about me
I loved a bit and lost some more at least I can say I tried
I'm already forgetting 23

Almost 24 and I'm fine
Another year of just the same
Almost 24 and I'm fine
Another year and I'll do it over again

Almost 24 and I'm fine
Another year of just the same
Almost 24 and I'm fine
Another year and I'll do it over again
