"Cave Song"

Nah the blood runs out Mark red lines across the pavement whilst the snow falls down stained crimson on the ground

Don't call the Police
I'm begging you please Because Ya know
It's dark
in this cave
The spotlight can't find the stage
It's dark
in this cave
but it feels like home so I think I'm gonna stay

Here where the looks fall cold you know this knife shines bold and then I'm running I wish I could just fall off But now it's getting kinda hard I think I'll be leaving in a funeral cart

Don't call the police
I'm begging ya please!

Who'd of thought the lies they told you would awake my restless brother Who'd of thought the lies they told you would awake my sisters lover

I'm begging ya please!
