I woke up today to hear the baby say
"We can't live this way
I wont hold this crown"
Remember these words I say to you I swear they are true
My blood it runs blue

We can't live this way
no we can't live this way, hey hey I can't wait for the kids to come come start this fire
No I can't wait for the kids to come
And I said son

You know I love you forever your faith is true
You know I love you forever
but my blood runs blue I love you forever & ever

If we live this way it will all fall down only fire can go replace his crown

Hey, Hey L Y F, how many you kids are scared of death?
