(This ships set sail
sail on you and me
This ships set sail
I just wanted to be free)

So maybe we will fail fail to not see maybe we will fail but at least we will be free)

You stand so holy nah don't sit down join the feet all marching across the ground

This place so lonely but nah don't settle down just hear the beat drown over all this lonesome sound

It's a sad song that makes a man put money before life
a sad song that puts a man for sale A sad song that make a man put money before life

how many asses are you gonna have to sell We were born as animals we were born as animals and we bros
But you
put suits on animals
you try to put suits on animals but we bros

we bros you lost man
we bros so long
put away your guns man and sing this song

And I said the mountain wont go falling if your still willing to climb but when the mountain goes falling true riches you will find

Nah we were born as animals born as animals and we bros
But you
put suits on animals
you try to put suits on animals but we bros

We bros you lost man!
We bros so long!
Put away your guns man!
And sing this song! (We Bros / We Bros!)
