GUITAR SOLO INTRO)

she goes walkin'

on the devils lawn

evil stalkin'

an' carryin' on an' on

Â

she leaves her slip rolled up inside the glove box of her car

Â

and tomorrow

she's starvin' for redeem

drippin' sorrow

she cries before the king

Â

wanting to speak so bad

but her mouth will only scream

(GUITAR SOLO)

Â

black leather

babe's gonna get to you

stormy weather

you know heaven's rain is due

Â

you better run

before it all starts to fall on you

you better run

before it all starts to fall on you

(GUITAR SOLO
