(GUITAR & KEYBOARD INTRO)

sometimes I know how good it feels to be as free as a rolling wheel cause then you just appear to me within the shapes of things I see when I leave

I watched an eagle way up high makin' circles in the sky

I watched a river passin' by

I've see it all from time to time in your eyes

(GUITAR & KEYBOARD STUFF)

I've listened to the birds in spring while taking walks in the late evening and seen the clouds writing in the wind in you it all begins and ends

(KEYBOARD STUFF)
