HARP INTRO)

makin' a livin' out on the road playin' those honky-tonks, searchin' for the gold we've all paid our share of blues singin' that same ol' blues, until the bars would close

Â

headin' up north to a one-night-stand there's nothin' like a yankee fan that'd make a southern boy feel at home catch the midnight flight to San Antone really turns those Texanson to feel the magic in the song

it's comin' from my heart
to the heart of the country you know there's nothin' I'd rather do for you
than sing you this song

to the heart of the country

if you can feel what I'm feelin', I know you gotta sing
if you can feel what I'm feelin', I know you gotta sing along

we've got ten more shows to play between Detroit and L.A.

it doesn't matter where you are the road goes on and people change but one thing stays the same

they know all the words by heart

Â

it's comin' from my heart
to the heart of the country
you know there's nothin' I'd rather do for you

to the heart of the country

if you can feel what I'm feelin', I know you gotta sing
if you can feel what I'm feelin', I know you gotta sing
along

it's comin' from my heart

to the heart of the country
you know there's nothin' I'd rather do for you
to the heart of the country
if you can feel what I'm feelin', I know you gotta sing
if you can feel what I'm feelin', I know you gotta sing
if you can feel what I'm feelin', I know you gotta sing
along
