KEYBOARD INTRO)

you're just another girlfriend

you're just another girlfriend

Â

everything was movin' right along

I have a feelin' what we had was strong

Â

you're just another girlfriend

who said it never would end is this the way the world is?

Â

now I hear you don't want me to call and I feel my back's against the wall

every time I feel I just can't lose someone comes along and makes me choose

like another girlfriend

who says it never will end ah, is this the way the world is?

(GUITAR SOLO)

Â

every time I feel I just can't lose

someone comes along and makes me choose

Â

you're just that kind of girlfriend it's just another girlfriend

you're just another girlfriend

just another girlfriend

you're just another girlfriend
