If I fell off to sleep and did not wake
A-would the Lord my soul to take
And could the land that I've known also die
Do you think of you and wonder why?

Down in Leatherwood
That thought we leave behind
Down in Leatherwood
Country love's gonna steal your mind
And we ain't never gonna be blue, be blue

Was a mad house all flooded by the rain
Or did I once live it in a dream
A-throwing all good minutes to the sea
Did you know the sky can also bleed?

Down in Leatherwood
That thought we leave behind
Down in Leatherwood
Country love's gonna steal your mind
And we ain't never gonna be blue, be blue

An inner voice, it is telling me my verse
Oh and if you're listening it can only make it worse
It's maybe that there is a master plan
Oh he who knows, he must be a great man

Down in Leatherwood
That thought we leave behind
Down in Leatherwood
Country love's gonna steal your mind
And we ain't never gonna be blue, be blue
Be blue, be blue, be blue
