INTRO)

ridin' in the back of our old limousine wond'rin' if we pass or we fail took by surprise we were only alive laughin' 'cause the dragon had a tail

Â

talkin' with a friend that I'd known so long tryin' to make a wall disappear nobody won, no it couldn't be done but the wall was never so clear

lost cabin, found in the nick of time lost cabin, back where the river winds lost cabin, high above the timberline lost cabin, man what a lucky find
man what a lucky find
man what a lucky find
man what a lucky find

(GUITAR SOLO)

fishin' in the dark where the moonlight failed we all lit a pole in the stream might of been fate or it could have been the bait we were standin' in a fisherman's dream sweatin' on the steps of a fate done past holdin' at my handful of keys how was I to know when I got up to go the landlord said, "it was free"

man what a lucky find
man what a lucky find

(HARP SOLO)
