hold on before you break me give me one more chance maybe i don't deserve it but give me one more chance to prove my to love you you can exist in a world without being a part of the

and somehow that's comforting when you're not where you want to be

but time it is a living thing i wonder what today will bring i wonder what the stars will have in store for us if you hold on before you wake me let me dream a dream as unlikely as it seems

but faith, it is a knowing thing relinquish all control of things and submit yourself to loving in the highest light
