I finally feel at ease, i'm on an eastern breeze
It blows me into shore Come back to kiss my dear, come back to face my fears
It can't be worse than war Unless you say that you gave your heart away (gave your heart away)
Unless you say that i shouldn't have returned (shouldn't have returned)
And in that case... i'll go

Every night i see a shooting star and wonder if it's landing where you are
If you can see it then you can't be far
And if that's the way you do it, that's the way you find your love

Now the air is cold and thin, i'm on my second wind
It blows me to your door Lean into the bell and press
You're in a brand new dress i've never seen before But then you say that you gave your heart away (i gave my heart away)
And then you say that i shouldn't have returned (you shouldn't have returned)
So i turn my face... and go

Every time i take a look around, i find myself looking out
To a place that looks a lot more round
I find myself feeling down

Every night i see a shooting star and wonder if it's landing where you are
If you can see it then you can't be far
And if that's the way you do it, that's the way you find
your love
