Wait for the sky to fall waiting for someone to call expecting your miracle but with no prayer at all with your eyes you do not see all of the history it will take much on your part to understand the mysteries and oh follow me let it be

and oh follow me let it be

In the desert I find myself the dust and the wind in my face I walk a thousand miles, but the soles of my shoes don't wear out If I follow the cloud it will put an end to my drought In the distance I see your face Through the ocean I walk with grace

Musical Interlude

Ohhhhh
follow me ohhhhh
let it be (repeat)
